A BIG BANK BROKEN

Capital National, of Lincoln. Neb., Goes Under.

State Treasurer's Bondsmen Caught for $250,000.

omaha Banks Promise Their Assistance in Case of a General Run.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 23.-The Capital National Bank of Lincoln has falled, and the State Treasurer is caught for about $250,000 The announcement was made shortly before

11 o'clock last night. The appearance of National Bank Examiner J. M. Griffith, of Wahoo, who came on the evening train, was responsible for the closing of the bank, which came a few hours after this official began his investigation of the books and papers of the institution.

It is stated that the failure is a bad one, but the exact situation cannot be ascertained at present. The deposits amount to about $625,000, and of this amount between $175,-000 and $250,000 are State funds, for which the bond of the Treasurer will be liable.

The capital stock of $350,000 is all paid up. Cashler B. C. Outcalt stated that the assets would protect the depositors, but there is reat doubt expressed as to the correctness of this statement. It is stated that the bond given by State Treasurer Bartley is for $3,100,000, which is bond includes nearly all the banks in Lincoln. two at Fremont, and the Globe Loan and Trust Company of Omaha. field says Gov. Altgeld was selzed with an The bank skipped a dividend the last time, which was the first occurrence of the kind in its bistory. Well-known bankers of Lincoln have known for some time that the Capital National Bank was in bad shape, but none of them has been alarmed for the reason that they believed all along that President Mosher would be able to assist the bank from his own funds if the worst came. A meeting of the bankers of this city was held at the Lincoln last evening to discuss the situation. It was feared that the trouble would precipitate a run on some of the other banks this morning, and one of the first things done was to make arrangements to
